BUILD LOG CABIN IN PIONEERS' MEMORY

Tipton County Settlers Cut Material from Virgin Forest—First White Child in Charge.

TIPTON, Ind., May 26.—Five hundred Tipton county pioneers raised a log cabin in the park here Thursday which is to stand as a monument to early settlers of the county. The logs used were cut from virgin timber in this locality. The Rev. Marion S. Teter, the first white child born in the county after its organization, was in charge of the erection of the cabin. In it were placed a number of relics, including a pair of spectacles said to have been worn by George Washington. The building of the cabin is regarded as a part of the celebration of the state centennial.
